Tutoring Experience

With 8 years of experience in teaching Computer Science, I've supported students in mastering the fundamentals of programming, algorithms, and system architecture. My experience spans across IB, A-Level, and IGCSE curriculums, where I've helped students develop strong technical and problem-solving skills.

Throughout my career, I've worked with students from diverse academic backgrounds, ensuring they excel in both coursework and exams. My students have successfully navigated difficult assignments and projects, gaining a deeper understanding of computer science principles and applications.
